Noted Southland Trial Attorney Inducted Into American College of Trial Lawyers

PASADENA, Calif.--- Garrett & Tully PC is pleased to announce that Robert Garrett, a recognized expert in real estate and professional liability litigation, has become a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers. Garrett was inducted during the recent Spring Meeting of the College at the La Quinta Resort & Club in La Quinta, California.

Fellowship in the College is extended by invitation only and cannot exceed 1% of the lawyers of any state or province. Lawyers must have a minimum of 15 years trial experience before they can be considered for Fellowship and have professional careers that are marked by the highest standards of ethical conduct, professionalism, civility, and collegiality.

"Bob is a highly respected trial lawyer and bridge builder by parties on both sides of a case. We are very honored that he has been recognized with the rare distinction of entry into the prestigious American College of Trial Lawyers," said Partner Stephen Tully.

Garrett has 38 years of broad based jury trial and litigation experience in a wide range of matters including real estate disputes, business disputes, shareholders derivative claims and defense of attorneys, accountants, and other professionals. He has also been engaged as an expert consultant and has testified as an expert witness in trial matters involving real property and attorney malpractice.

In his spare time, Garrett devotes many hours toward youth development and mentoring and has served for many years as a coach of the Arcadia High School Constitution Team, a nationally recognized high school debate team that participates in the "We the People" competition initiated by former Chief Justice Warren Burger. Teams coached by Garrett have regularly competed in the final round of the state competition in Sacramento and have twice competed in the National Championship in Washington, D.C., finishing as National Champions and second place. He received a J.D. from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law and a B.A. from the University of Southern California.

In conjunction with the firm's Westlake Village office, Garrett & Tully's Pasadena office offers clients expertise in addressing and resolving complex and challenging matters based upon good business sense. The firm has core practice areas in real estate litigation, business and commercial litigation, professional liability, title insurance, insurance coverage, employment practices, and appellate law.
